When you are old and grey and full of sleep
And nodding by the fire, take down this book,
And slowly read, and dream of the soft look
Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep . . .

— and suddenly out of the clear darkness the sound of bells . . . the spirit of the past brooding over a new generation . . .

. . . a new generation, shouting the old cries, learning
the old creeds, through a reverie of long days and nights . . .

F. Scott Fitzgerald — This Side of Paradise

The sense of going forward in a direct out a few new feathers.

Autumn . . . Arrival . . .
Settling in

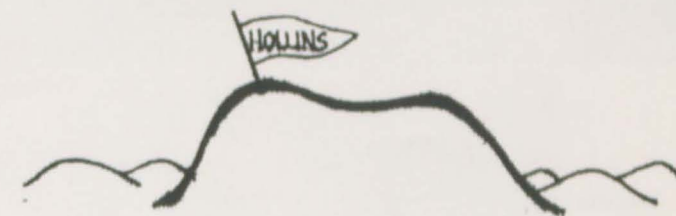

On a surprise October day, you just might see. . .

Tinker Day!

The Tinker Day tradition at Hollins . . .

good food, good fun, good friends.

. . . a few hundred girls dressed in outrageously original garb climbing Tinker Mountain.

Oktoberfest opened October with the German fair for festivity and hearty food. Unusually warm weather sparked a record turnout for Parents' Weekend. The clear fall afternoons found the hockey team on the field practicing — for what would become a team we could brag about.

FALL WEEKEND

Beautiful autumn weather brought a large crowd for Fall Weekend '79. Guests enjoyed tapes and beer in the Rathskeller on Friday Night and the swing music of the Burt Massengale Band provided the entertainment for the Saturday night formal. The age-old Hollins theme song, "... People say that you and I, we really look together ..." blared over the amplifiers at the Civic Center when "Janice" performed on Sunday.

THE CIRCUS CAME TO TOWN

As the first signs of fall appeared, students and faculty members were entertained by the Royal Lichtenstein Circus on the back quad.

The able crew of four amused the crowd with antics which ranged from gags to magic to acrobatics while spectators feasted on popcorn, donuts and hot chocolate.

An adorable miniature horse (not pictured) was featured in the finale, but alas, the crew refused to let Laurie Eldridge keep him.

MATTIE COCKE'S BIRTHDAY

Another October festivity is Miss Mattie's birthday party. Complete with cake, ice cream, and traditional Hollins songs, the party celebrates the birthday of Miss Mattie Cocke, daughter of the founder of the College and its second president. This year Hollins' first woman president was 122 years old!

The General Speakers Fund Committee brought a variety of lecturers to campus in the fall. Victor Marchetti, former C.I.A. agent, discussed the agency's activities, and Jean Kilbourne presented her slide-lecture program "Images of Women in Advertising." A panel discussion on nuclear energy sparked controversy with different views on that energy alternative. In November Peter Whitbread, a touring Shakespearean actor from London, presented a one-man show on the playwright through the eyes of his contemporary Richard Burbage (no photo available).

GRAPHEON PIE THROW

There they were, eight victims prepared for the First Annual Grapheon Pie Throwing Auction. Students, faculty, and friends bid against each other for the honor of smashing a pie into a favorite's face. Splat!

REMINISCING SERIES

Ginny Grady, SGA vice president for academic affairs, invited Hollins graduates from the classes of '12, '22, '35, and on into the early seventies to reminisce with students in the Green Drawing Room on a series of Sundays this fall. They told us of step-singing and the ringing of the triangle bell before dinner, of student sit ins and candlelight marches.

Susanna Pleasants Turner, '35 (above), painted a particularly vivid picture of the Great Depression at Hollins and its effect on young women.

FALL ORCHESIS PRODUCTION

The fall Orchesis production featured a lively Cole Porter medley entitled "Jazz a la Carte" choreographed by dance professor Haruki Fujimoto (pictured below).

Members of Orchesis beautifully executed the Isadora Duncan piece (not shown) which they performed later in regional competition.

For the complex lighting and sound effects, an expert tech crew was on hand.

In the tradition of Studio 54 (and Apartment 305 '79),

DISCO LIVES ON!

“PUT ON YOUR DANCIN’ SHOES . . .”

“If music be the food of love, play on . . .”

— Shakespeare, Twelfth Night

Six Greek Goddesses, Tarzan and Jane, a group of "Coneheads," Adam and Eve, the White Rabbit and the Queen of Heart? Oh, they're just Juniors at the mercy of their Senior "Ring Sisters," and tonight must be . . .

RING NIGHT!

Frantic Juniors, dressed in wacky costumes, can be seen carrying out the hilarious commands of their "Ring Sisters" in order to find the next clue to the whereabouts of their rings. The lobster tank at Archie's Lobster House, a pickle jar, a champagne bottle, and the chemistry lab have all been hiding places.

The wild evening culminates in a Junior-Senior party in the Rathskellar after the rings are found.

CHRISTMAS at Hollins rings in several traditional events: the annual Christmas bazaar for a good excuse to spend our money; the sparse Golden Rule Dinner served by Seniors in order to send money to a charity; the special choir music at the White Gift Service; and a merry night at the Junior-Senior Christmas Dinner hosted by President and Mrs. Brewster and Dean Stewart.

EXAMS!

December weather confused students, who did not know whether they had been struck with spring fever or exam plague. The latter proved true and out came hidden supplies of TAB, Coke, coffee, aspirin and No-Doz. Symptoms ranged from anxiety ridden faces to shaky knees. Library hours were extended as students brushed up on economics and art history.

HOLLINS SENDS A RUNNER TO THE OLYMPICS

Suzy Mink, '74, current director of the Annual Fund, represented Virginia in the 1,000 mile Olympic torch relay from Yorktown, VA to Lake Placid, NY for the Winter Olympic Games.

January 31, 1980 was the first time that the United States received the Olympic flame directly from Olympia, Greece. The flame arrived on Air Force One at Langley Air Force Base; Suzy was the first runner to carry the torch.

Intense concentration in focused lab work, the fast pace of Hollins night at the roller rink.

Winter Seminar lectures — standing room only — and dinner entertainment by youthful gymnasts were all part of this year's packed short term calendar.

Friends from Hollins were on hand to greet Suzy as she began the torch relay.

SHORT TERM

A four-week short term which runs from January to early February offers Hollins students an opportunity to concentrate on one course not offered during the regular school year. The student who spends short term on campus usually finds herself walking the scarcely populated campus in a chilling winter wind or in ankle-deep snow; however, the cold of winter does not depress the Hollins short termers. Campus Activities provided the students with Happy Hours, Roller Skating Parties, and Mixers while the General Speaker's Fund arranged Winter Seminars which covered several aspects of Victorian England.

SPECIAL DINNER — RESTAU- RANT STYLE

A served dinner by candlelight put the finishing touch on Short Term 1980.

There were hors d'oeuvres in the "lobby" and the head waiter, John, set the dress style for the evening by wearing his tuxedo. The meal was complemented by Jim Brzozowski's organ music.

HUN- DREDTH NIGHT

Miss Piggy, a six pack of beer, peppermint candy, and a Dallas Cowgirl all share one thing in common: they are among the secret desires of members of the Senior Class displayed on Hundredth Night. Just 99 more before graduation, girls!!!

"And what we leave here is more than this class; it's the whole heritage of youth.
We're just one generation —
we're breaking all the links that seem to bind us here . . .
We've walked arm and arm through half these deep-blue nights . . ."

A Spinster has already been dedicated to Frances Niederer. Rather than repeat that, the 1980 staff chooses to pause appropriately in this Miss Niederer's last teaching year at Hollins to thank her for her years of superior teaching and devotion to the college.

I wonder whether art has a higher function than to make me feel, appreciate, and enjoy natural objects for their art value? Each day, as I look, I wonder where my eyes were yesterday.

— Bernard Berenson

In Miss Niederer, Hollins has long enjoyed a special teacher, historian, artist, and friend.

In education, the closeness of students to a good or great man or woman is the finest we can offer our children.

AUTOGRAPHS

Remember how you used to sign your friends' year books back in high school? Remember those silly sayings like: Remember Grant

Remember Lee

To heck with them

Remember me!

Sure, you remember, just like you remember Saturday cartoons, Keds, and twinkies . . . Go ahead, get your friends to sign. It'll be swell to look back and read 'em.

*If all the boys
Lived across the sea
What good swimmers
Hollins women would be!*

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Notes from the editor at the end of the yearbook are traditionally sentimental anecdotes evoking the fond memories of the recently terminated ratrace, or even a parting benediction for the incoming editor and staff.

This editor has never liked "notes from the editor" that close yearbooks; such an ending implies that the book belongs to one person.

This Spinster does not belong to one person. The 1980 Spinster belongs to you — the students for whom we, the staff worked long, exhausting hours (those who came through to the bitter end know who they are). We strove to design a different, dynamic book full of contrast and meaning.

The verdict is yours. Is this Hollins this year?

Most sincerely yours,

Wyeth Outlan and the 1980 Spinster staff

p.s. L.A.F., we done it!
w.o.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The Student Index gives each Hollins student's name, class, and address. As this is an undergraduate yearbook, graduate students are not pictured.

For future identification purposes, a special effort has been made to list the page on which underclasswomen are pictured with their dorm group.

Seniors have not been indexed since they are pictured alphabetically in that section and may be easily located.

"N.P." is the abbreviation for "not pictured."

But in the discrepancy that falls between there lies the great challenge.

CAMPUS ACTIVITIES

It is not possible to picture every member of HOP; there are many, many members of the Hollins community who went on one or more trips, hikes, or bike rides. A few of those members are pictured above as they paused at a sign-up meeting. Their fearless leader, Cecy Ussler, was not available for a picture at that time.
